

Edward Treadway

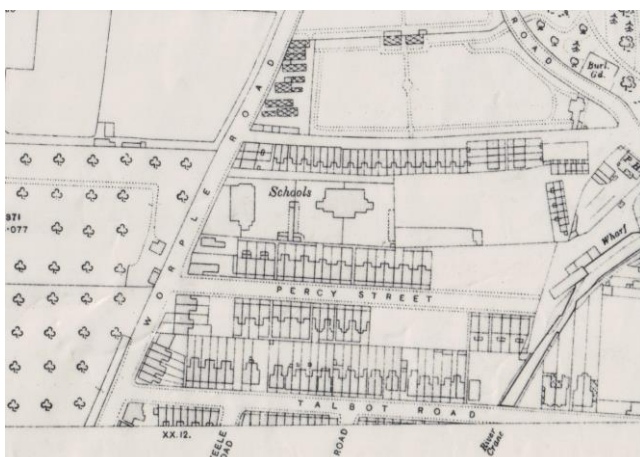

The son of Herbert and Eliza Treadway, who were born in Hounslow, Edward was born in 1891 in Steele Road in Isleworth. The census records him living at York Cottages, Steele Road, Isleworth (1891), 44 Algar Road, Isleworth (1901) and 11 Percy Road, Isleworth (1911). His father was a foreman at a soap factory and Edward worked as a grocer's porter (1911).

44 Algar Rd, 2015

11 Percy Road, 2015

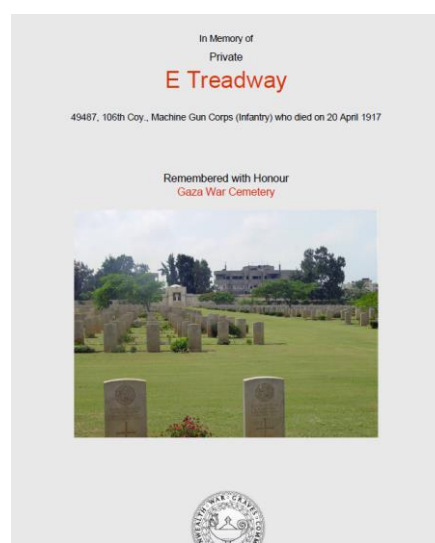

Percy Street (Road) Isleworth C1915 Ordnance Survey

1958), Agnes Victoria (born in 1897 and died in 1931 in Uxbridge), Bertha Winifred (born in 1899 and married in 1928 in Brighton) and Claude Simpson (born in 1903, and recorded as a hospital porter in his brother, Christopher's probate calendar; he died in 1960)

Private Edward Treadway (3745) embarked on the HMT Caledonian from Devonport on 12th November 1915, served in Sulva, Alexandria and Fayoum and was discharged from the Middlesex Regiment and transferred to the Machine Gun Corps (49487) in July 1916. He was killed in action on 20th April, 1917 after the Second Battle of Gaza, in Palestine, as part of the Egyptian Theatre and is buried in the Gaza Cemetery. His medals were discovered in the attic of 11 Percy Road, Isleworth by the present owner and handed over to the Local Studies collection in Hounslow. Edward is also remembered on the memorials at St Bridgets Church, Isleworth and All Souls Church, St Margarets.

He had six brothers and sisters: Herbert (born in 1887, was a railway stoker in 1909 when he enlisted in the Royal Fusiliers; he was discharged as a sergeant in 1921), Florence Emily (born in 1889), Christopher (born in 1893, employed at Isleworth Brewery when he enlisted on the same day and place and regiment as his brother, Edward, then served in Gallipoli, Palestine and Egypt before contracting Malaria. He was discharged from hospital in Egypt in September 1919 and died in Hounslow hospital in

Certificate included with the permission of the CWGC