

Ernest Alfred Leonard Lambourne

Ernest Alfred Leonard Lambourne was the son of Blanche Blossett, originally from Hereford, and William Lambourne, a 'jobbing' gardener born in Isleworth. He was baptised at St Mary's Osterley on January 9th 1898 (see 2016 photo of St Mary's below left) with a home address of 3 Temple Road, Hounslow- (see 1895 map below. Temple Road is parallel with Inwood Road, which borders the orchard areas)

In 1901, he was living in 85, High Street Hounslow, Isleworth with his parents, and brothers- John William (baptised 8th February 1891), Frederick Harold Stanley (baptised 27th January 1895) and Reginald Jamieson (baptised 14th June 1896). The family moved around residences in Spring Grove and Hounslow. In 1911, the family lived in Kingsley House, London Road, Isleworth. John was no longer living there but the family now included Albert Edward (baptised on 22nd February 1903), Cecil Benjamin (baptised 9th April 1905), Clara Blanche (aged 4) and Archibald (aged 2). Frederick worked as a messenger and Reginald as a grocer's shop assistant.

Kingsley House, London Road Isleworth in 1865.

Leonard enlisted at Brentford, was involved in action in Belgium and died from wounds on 24th July 1917, aged 19. Private Lambourne (14912) was with the Machine Gun Corps (Infantry) 166th Company and formerly the Royal Warwickshire Regiment (14945). He is buried in the Lijssenthoek Military Cemetery in Belgium, which is the second largest Commonwealth Cemetery in Belgium. Leonard's effects were left to his father, William in 1917 and 1919- a total of £9, 9s and 6d. He is also remembered on the memorials in St John's Church, Isleworth and St Mary's, Spring Grove, Osterley. He was awarded the Victory and the British War Medals.

Certificate included with the permission of the CWGC